I Am the God Who Gives Second Chances John 21

The Christian life has been defined as a series of _____.

God is eager to give His people second chances, not because we _____ it, but because it is a reflection of the _____ of the God we serve.

IN JOHN 21 ARE THREE LESSONS ABOUT SECOND CHANCES:

LESSON #1 -

There are not any _____ Christians!

Throughout the Gospel of John, John uses _____ and _____ to describe spiritual conditions.

Jesus is the _____ that changes your world!

We should never run from the only One who can help us. God is not your _____!
God is your only _____!

If you want to be right with God, you need to return to the _____ where you got off _____.

You cannot _____ what you will not _____.

If you want a second chance, you have to go back and confront your _____, _____, and take ownership; and express to God you want to be in _____ again.

Jesus did not die on the cross to _____ you like you are. Jesus died on the cross to _____ you!

LESSON #2 - _____

The circle of knowledge means your _____ should be as _____ as your sin. You need to repent just as _____ as you sinned.

When you get restored by the Lord, you have to take off all your _____.

Repentance is not to _____ face.
Repentance is to get _____ with God.

LESSON #3 - _____

Just because God gives second chances, He never lowers the _____ of expectation for us.

God's second chances are not a way to get out of His _____, but they are a way to _____ to His will.

The only chance for a second chance is that you _____ your _____ to God's _____.
