KINGDOM LIVING

The Bible's Most Abused Verse

Matthew 7:1—6

There are times we have to make _____ calls about our own _____ and sometimes about the behavior of others.

We should stand against the grain of _____ that argues that all judgment is out of bounds.

The point of Matthew 7:1 is not that we should stop judging all together, but when we do judge, we make sure we do it the _____ way.

1. CARNAL JUDGMENT LEADS TO

_____ Jesus clearly condemns judging others with a _____ attitude.

We have to make sure we have _____ motives when we make judgments about other people.

We should never judge to _____ others!

There is a great difference between _____ sin with the purpose of _____ and condemning people in order to _____ in their judgment.

Before you pass judgment on another, make sure you have all the _____!

TWO LESSONS WHEN PASSING JUDGMENT:

- GOD WILL _____ WITH YOU THE SAME WAY YOU _____ WITH OTHERS

• OTHERS WILL DEAL WITH YOU IN THE
_____ YOU DEAL WITH THEM

The same _____ you use with others is the same spirit others will _____ with you.

2. CARELESS JUDGMENT LEADS TO _____

Don't judge other people to _____ the sin in your own _____.

Most people who are overly judgmental of others are typically trying to cover _____ up in their own lives.

The easiest way to _____ is not by pulling people _____ but by pulling others _____ to where we are.

Those who are furthest from God are the most _____ in their _____ about those who are trying to _____ with God.

Don't be guilty of pointing out another's _____ when you _____ to deal with your own faults.

You have to look with _____ to find a speck in another's _____.

If you look for the _____ in people, you will find it!

3. CAREFUL JUDGMENT LEADS TO _____

God _____ judgment that condemns, but God _____ in judgment that corrects.

We should never judge to _____ people. We judge to be _____.

Judgment has to start _____ with us!
