THE DAWN OF JUSTICE
Yes We Can, But We Shouldn't
Judges 9

1. _____

If you don't resist when tempted with sin, you will find yourself doing the _____.

There is a two-fold lesson as Abimelech becomes king:

• Be careful of a politician who is desperate for _____, that there is no promise they will not _____, or any conviction they will not _____, or any action that they will not _____.

• We all have _____ that don't _____ God.

We must bring our _____ into _____ to God's _____ for our lives.

2. _____

If we choose to ignore God's Word, God will _____ us.

Jotham is a reminder that God's Word is more important than _____.

When you choose the worst possible _____, God will hold you _____.

We cannot be led by the _____ that ignores _____ and _____.

We need to look to _____ rather than _____.

3. _____

God will always _____.

In Judges 9:20 is Jotham's two-fold prophecy:

- _____ would come from Abimelech and consume the people of Shechem.
- _____ would consume Abimelech

A nation cannot live in _____ against God!

God wants us to turn to Him and _____.
