THE DAWN OF JUSTICE

Making a Man of Steel

Judges 13

Samson is created by God for a particular _____.

No sensitivity to holy living is _____ of the _____.

Sometimes believers are content to go with the _____ and be like the _____ around them.

Samson is the Old Testament "Man of Steel" who served a two-fold purpose:

- _____

- _____

The origin of Samson reveals two important lessons about life as we live for the Lord:

1. _____

Living according to God's plan ought to be a great _____ for every Christian.

God has not _____ on you!

Every believer who wants to make God's plan a priority must _____ to walk in _____ before the Lord.

The problem is that we want the will of God for our _____ and not for His _____.

To know God's will for your life, you have to make two commitments:

- _____

- _____

The problem is not that God refuses to _____ us ... the problem is we don't recognize His _____.

You find His direction in His _____

2. _____

If God's plan for your life becomes your greatest _____, then the power of God's potential is _____ in your life.

_____ is about being everything God wants you to be.

God is growing our _____ to do His Kingdom _____.
