WITHOUT GOD, EVERYTHING IS NOTHING
The League of Injustice
Ecclesiastes 3:12—22

Despite the evil in the world, we know God wants us to _____ because God gives us _____ to enjoy for that very reason.

We are given three examples of God's gifts that help us stay on _____. The three things given in Ecclesiastes 3:13 are _____, _____, and _____.

Solomon is saying the presence of _____ should not prevent you from _____ the _____ of God that is around you.

In Ecclesiastes 3:14-15, Solomon returns us to the _____ of God.

God is not _____ about the future, He plans the _____ from the _____!

If you want to keep your _____ equilibrium in a world gone bad, don't fear the _____ of the world, but _____ God who reigns over the world.

THERE ARE SEVERAL LESSONS WE NEED TO LEARN:

1. THE REALITY OF _____ IS CLEAR

Every generation faces the evidence of human _____.

2. THE RETALIATION AGAINST _____ IS COMING

Injustice will not last forever! God will have the _____.

Sometimes God delays His judgment because He is _____, not because He is _____.

Rather than being concerned when God will deal with _____, perhaps we should be more concerned about when God will deal with _____.

Human beings without God have two things in common with animals:

- We _____ just like the animals
- We will return to _____ _____ death equals hell.

_____ deaths equal heaven!

No Christian will face the dangers of _____.

One day, everyone will meet God. You will either be covered by His _____ or exposed by His _____.

What matters is what you do with God _____.

3. THE RELIEF FROM EVIL IS _____

Focus on the _____ and leave the rest to God!
