WITHOUT GOD, EVERYTHING IS NOTHING
Are You Lonesome Tonight?
Ecclesiastes 4:1—8

People from all walks of life battle _____.

Solomon's premise in Ecclesiastes 4 is simple.
God did not make us to live in a _____ or to walk through life by _____.

Any true search for _____ under the sun will require the presence of _____ or encouraging _____.

SOLOMON GIVES US THREE WARNINGS TO HELP US UNDERSTAND WHY WE FEEL LONELY AND A ROAD MAP TO A BETTER WAY TO LIVE...

1. POWERFUL AUTHORITY PUSHES PEOPLE INTO _____

In Ecclesiastes 4:1, Solomon observes that power generally rests in the hands of just a few people.
The result, according to Solomon, is two-fold:

- _____ people shed tears
- Those in position to comfort the hurting are generally _____ about the condition of their fellow humans

Solomon is saying, _____ divides people.

The ground at the foot of the cross is _____.

Without Jesus, we are all _____!

We are all created _____ in the eyes of God,
but that is not true in the eyes of the _____.

The categories we place people in seldom reflect their _____ as human beings.

Trials and depression are not limited to the down and out, but are found at all _____ of _____.

2. PROFESSIONAL AMBITION PUTS PEOPLE IN _____

Competition _____ us from one another.

The disease of _____ turns close friends into enemies.

Being lonely doesn't necessarily come from being alone but from _____ alone.

The key to a successful life is _____.

3. PERSONAL AFFLUENCE PREVENTS PEOPLE FROM _____

Often, the more you _____, the fewer _____ you have.

Something is wrong if you spend more time _____ your wealth than _____ it.

The kingdom of possessions is a kingdom of _____.

If you want to avoid being lonely, prioritize the following:

- LOVE _____ FIRST
- LOVE _____ SECOND
- LOVE _____ LAST
