WITHOUT GOD, EVERYTHING IS NOTHING
Know Fear
Ecclesiastes 5:1—9

When it comes to the Holy Scripture, you will find two distinct messages concerning fear:

- Fear is a _____ thing
- Fear is a _____ thing

If we _____ God, we will live in accordance to His _____!

This type of fear is described as _____ fear.

The fear of God is the _____ that holds a society together.

HOW DO WE GIVE GOD THE FEAR
HE DESERVES?

1. BE CONSCIOUS OF HOW YOU
_____ GOD

We don't use God to _____! We come to worship to _____ more of _____ to God.

We must have _____ for our worship!

Most people have enough religion to make themselves _____ and God _____.

God doesn't exist for _____ ... we exist for _____!

Our worship is never about our _____,
but all about God's _____.

2. BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU PRAY TO GOD

You must be _____ what you say to God.

SPURGEON SAID:

It is not the _____ of our prayers, but the
_____ of our prayers that make a difference.

We are often the most hasty or impulsive when we come before God _____ in life.

You can give God the _____ of your sorrow,
but never give God the _____ for your sorrow.

Questioning the _____ of God should never lead us to questioning the _____ of God.

God is our _____ and not our _____.

3. BE COMMITTED WHEN YOU PROMISE GOD

Keep the _____ you make to God!

There is no _____ for disobeying God.

If you are comfortable with _____ vows to God, then there is no _____ of God in your life.
