WITHOUT GOD, EVERYTHING IS NOTHING
Famous Last Words of a Fool
Ecclesiastes 9:13—10:20

We are living in a society when people are acting both _____ and _____ foolish!

Solomon reminds us that a little _____ in your life can _____ your life all together.

We live in a world where it seems the wise are _____ and the foolish are _____.

A little foolishness contaminates _____ and _____ in your life.

It is the _____ things that can lead to great _____.

The _____ will direct a wise man to the things of _____. The fool is driven to _____.

You can spot a person who is foolish by the _____ they _____.

THERE ARE TWO WAYS TO LIVE:

- A _____ Life
- A walk in the _____ of the Lord

Solomon gives us three instructions in how to overcome folly and be wise:

1. BE COMPETENT WITH YOUR _____

Leadership exists at every _____ of life.

You can't always _____ what other people do,
but you can be _____ in controlling _____.

Strong leaders will allow themselves to be
_____.

Real leaders do not _____ their position ... they lead according to their _____.

It is a _____ to lead!

2. BE CAREFUL IN YOUR _____

Wisdom not only affects how we _____ and how we _____, but wisdom affects how we
_____.

To walk in wisdom, you must make _____.

3. BE CONSCIOUS OF YOUR _____

Don't let your _____ get you in trouble!

We can talk too much and say too much!
Solomon says we are to speak _____ others!

Be more conscious of what you _____ than what you _____ say.

Don't ever say in _____ what you would refuse to say in _____.

Your tongue is a mere expression of your _____!

The course of our _____ is determined by the wisdom or foolishness of our _____.

The most foolish thing any of us will ever do is to try and live our life without _____!
