WITHOUT GOD,
EVERYTHING IS NOTHING
Time Marches On
Ecclesiastes 11

Solomon points to God as the source of _____, _____, and _____ for life under the sun.

We are taught by Solomon that the God who is outside of time is able to give us _____ and _____ within time.

THREE INSTRUCTIONS TO ENCOURAGE US TO SEE EACH DAY AS A PRECIOUS GIFT:

1. REMEMBER THE PERSPECTIVE OF A

To sum up the life perspective of a disciple in one word, that word would be _____!

In Ecclesiastes 11:2, Solomon is saying to not be afraid to take some _____ in life.

Life is uncertain but we serve a God of _____.

Solomon's instruction includes that we _____ like a disciple to Jesus, _____ carefully, _____ the will of God and _____ God with your life.

Don't live with so much _____ over the past that you cannot live _____.

God can bring _____ out of the mistakes and blunders of your past.

You do not have to _____ God to trust God.

Circumstances are _____ but our God is _____.

Learn to _____ and leave the rest to God.

2. REJOICE OVER THE POSSIBILITIES OF A

_____.

We should not be so focused on life's _____ that we fail to enjoy the _____.

Despite life's frustrations and limitations, life under the sun is not _____.

Learn to _____ in the possibilities a day brings!

Christians ought to be the most _____ people in the world.

3. RECOGNIZE THE PARAMETERS OF A

Desire is not a bad thing as long as it operates within _____ parameters.

Within the boundaries of _____, you should enjoy the _____.

Solomon says to follow the impulses of your _____, and pursue the desires of your _____, but know God will bring you to _____ for everything you do whether it is good or bad.

You do not have to enjoy _____ to enjoy life.

Life is short and time marches on; our only _____ is _____ for God.
